Overview of Draft Home Rule Charter Document

Prepared by the Bulverde Home Rule Charter Commission

What's New?

Changes to the Mayor & City Council:

- The Mayor's position will become primarily policy oriented by giving it a full vote on the City Council and transferring the remaining administrative duties to the City Manager.
- The number of elected Council Members will be increased from 5 to 6 in order to provide more representation.
- The terms of office for the Mayor and City Council Member positions will be increased from 2 years to 3 years. This change will only take effect after the election of new members under the Charter, and no current incumbent's term will be extended under this provision. Term limits will also be implemented.
- The Members of City Council will be elected by place, meaning that candidates will run for specific seats on the Council. However, Council Members will continue to be elected City-wide.
- The Members of the City Council will be elected by majority vote, and any election in which no candidate receives a majority will be settled in a runoff election between the top two vote getters.

Changes to Governmental Accountability and Direct Democracy:

- The Citizens will gain the right to remove any elected official from office by filing a recall petition.
- The Citizens will gain the right to require Council passed ordinances to be ratified by the voters by filing a referendum petition.
- The Citizens will gain the right the right to enact ordinances directly by filing an initiative petition.
- Vacancies in the office of Mayor or City Council member will generally be filled by special election instead of Council appointment.

Changes to Municipal Boundaries & Regulation:

- The City will gain the ability to expand the City Limits up to 10% in any given year, subject to state law and procedures.
- The City will gain the ability to prohibit certain nuisances, such as illegal dumping grounds or illicit junk yards, within certain portions of the ETJ.

Changes to City Administration:

- The City Administrator's position will be renamed "City Manager", but will continue to serve as the City's chief administrative official.

What's staying the same?

- Members of the City Council will continue to be elected from the City at large and to represent the City at large. (The City of Bulverde has never elected Council Members from geographic districts)
- The City's authority to tax, per the Texas Constitution, is based on population, not form of government. Therefore, the City's taxing authority is the same under General Law or Home Rule.
- The City's extra-territorial jurisdiction is also based on population, not form of government. The extent of the City's ETJ will not be changed if a Home Rule Charter is adopted.
- The City's power of eminent domain is granted and restricted by state law and the state Constitution, and is the same regardless of whether the City has a Home Rule Charter.
- The City's options for the issuance of debt are the same under both Home Rule and General Law.
- The City's zoning authority is derived from state law, not the Home Rule Charter. Therefore, the City will have the same zoning authority under Home Rule that it currently has under General Law.

ARTICLE XI: TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Section 11.01. Submission of Charter to Election; Transitional Provisions

In accordance with State law, this Charter is to be submitted for election. Additionally:

- a. The Charter Commission, in preparing this Charter, finds and declares that it is impracticable to segregate each subject so that the voter may vote "yes" or "no" on the same, for the reason that the Charter is so constructed that in order to enable it to properly function, it is necessary that it should be adopted in its entirety. For this reason, the Charter Commission directs that this Charter be voted upon as a whole, and that it shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the City at an election to be held on May 9, 2015.
- b. If this Charter is approved by a majority of the qualified voters, voting at this election, it shall become the Charter of the City of Bulverde on the date the Council enters an order in the records of the City declaring that the Charter is adopted.
- c. Upon approval of this Charter by the voters through a city-wide election, the incumbent elected officials of the City shall carryover and become the elected officials of the City under this Charter, as provided in this Section. Election to any office prior to the adoption of this Charter shall not count toward the term limitations of this Charter.
- d. The Mayor of the City of Bulverde elected on May 10, 2014 shall serve as Mayor of the City under this Charter. Under this provision the Mayor shall serve a one (1) year term, and a successor shall be elected for a full three (3) year term at the City's general election in 2016, or another date designated by the City Council if changes to state law prevent the holding of an election on that date.
- e. The two Council Members elected on May 10, 2014, shall serve as Council Members for Place One and Place Two under this Charter, and lots shall be drawn to determine which Council Member will be designated as serving in Place One and which Council Member will be designated as serving in Place Two. Under this provision, the Council Members for Place One and Place Two shall serve a one (1) year term, and successors shall be elected for full three (3) year terms at the City's general election in 2016, or another date designated by the City Council if changes to state law prevent the holding of an election on that date.
- f. The three Council Members elected on May 9, 2015 shall serve as Council members for Place Four, Place Five, and Place Six under this Charter, and lots shall be drawn to determine which Council Member will be designated as serving in Place Four, Place Five, and Place Six. Under this provision, the Council Member for Place Four shall serve a two (2) year term, and a successor shall be elected for a full three (3) year term at the City's general election in 2017, or another date designated by the City Council if changes to state law prevent the holding of an election on that date. The Council Members for Place Five and Place Six shall serve a three (3) year term, and successors shall be elected for full three (3) year terms at the City's general election in 2018, or another date designated by the City Council if changes to state law prevent the holding of an election on that date.

- g. Upon adoption of this Charter, there will be no incumbent officeholder to carryover into the Office of City Council Member, Place Three, and a vacancy will be created. Upon adoption of this Charter, the City Council shall declare the Office of City Council Member, Place Three vacant, and shall proceed to call a special election in accordance with the requirements of the Texas Constitution and the Texas Election Code applicable to vacancies in offices with three (3) year terms. The person elected to the Office of Council Member, Place Three at the special election shall serve until a successor shall be elected for a full three (3) year term at the City's general election in 2017, or another date designated by the City Council if changes to state law prevent the holding of an election on that date.
